Judges Critique

Thanks for the lovely entry, bearing in mind I was not your original Judge (Paul Harding get well soon), and to Lisa, my very efficient steward. What can I say about this breed, only that I left the ring with my cheeks and jaw aching from all the smiling that I had done. So much character and fun, I really enjoyed my time judging here. Made all the better by the lovely ringside applauding and cheering for the winners. We all have a slightly different interpretation of the standard which is fine, I also know in some cases dogs could have changed places on other days. Breed type was evident with just one or two looking a little 'leggy.' Not all of us will agree on heads & I can see that, but a dog doesn't work on it's head alone and I try to see the whole picture. However, when it comes down to it I must see a good rear end on any breed bred for working, then a matching front and good muscle & angulation, which I found. Presentation was A1 throughout as was wonderful, happy temperaments. A few were too close behind and again just a few were, for me, a tad upright in shoulder. That said, I don't think this breed has much to worry about for the future if the youngsters on show here are going to provide the foundation for breeding stock in the years to come. My sincere thanks for making my day so lovely, I am still smiling whilst typing this!!
