JUDGES CRITIQUE

Many thanks to the committee for their kind invitation and the warm welcome I received. My thanks to all the exhibitors who accepted my decisions with great sportsmanship. There was a very good feeling of camaraderie which was especially encouraging for all newcomers to our lovely breed. Last but not least to my stewards Maggie Mulholland and Caroline Corner who kept proceeding moving without delay. A couple of reflections, a number of tails were being carried high which spoils the picture, please train to keep them down it can be done. Coarse heads are creeping in take time to study pedigrees when breeding. Clean coats and spotting in general were very pleasing.
