Judges Critique

MPD (3) 1 & BP Green & Sear Alphadal Aint Misbehaving Badly at Judally, a free striding liver which is well schooled to make the most of his virtues. Has a look of quality, elegant yet all male with a well balanced head, excellent reach of neck, defined withers, firm back, good tail and complimentary angles. Immaculate coat and he was so easy on the eye as he went around the ring with good ground cover. 2 Alcock's Kayjule Kepler at Dalspartan black which is well decorated, a good size with a pleasing head, lovely eyes, ample neck, not quite the upper arm length of the winner, well ribbed, level back and enough bend of stifle. Just needs to firm up in hock which will be better when he is less enthusiastic! 3 McCappin's Kayjule Kitalpha,

PD (3) 1 Finlay's Dalfin Actual Fact nicely decorated black, so well developed for his age in body and muscle, tail a bit high set and carried for me, his angulations are balanced and he circles the ring with an even stride. 2 Holland's Capearlila Its On Ice this is such a handsome headed, well decorated black which is so impressive on the stack. However on the move he throws his front legs about and really needs to be moved at a slower speed to make him look better. His head is all male, lovely eyes and expression, so well ribbed and muscled. Sparkling jacket. 3 Keenan's Tippledal Breno.

JD (4,1) 1 Quayle's Millebelle Kicking Horse at Culalibre I did like the quality look of this charming liver's head and eyes. Clean, elegant outline. I liked his layback in shoulder, the supple loin and well muscled hindquarters. Looks and moves like a very fit athlete, covering the ground so well in profile. Toes in a but when fore viewed which told against him later. 2 Millington's Capearlla Pure Diamonds hurried into the ring late in the class but soon settled. Clean, flowing outline, well decorated, reasonable layback in shoulder, spotless presentation, very good bend of stifle but just not doing his best when coming towards me. 3 O'Connor's Dalamanti Diamond Raider.

PGD (3) 1 Hernandez' Dalminchi Starlite Express JW pleasing head on this well decorated black. I liked his reach of neck, well developed ribcage, firm back and so well muscled hindquarters which could be a little more let down. Went around the ring with an even, balanced step but could be a shade truer moving away. 2 Christie's Laguna Dios Free Falcon by Sophtspot a well decorated male which is a tad over long in loin for me. He exaggerated this when circling the ring as he was pulling away and extending his overall length. Nice for size and substance, well set and carried tail but not just not happy in the ring. 3 D. Diamond Raider.

LD (4) 1 Whincup's Tamilanda Midnight Lilly JW this clever handler always brings her charges into the ring on tip toe of expectation, firing on all cylinders and seeming to enjoy every second. He is undoubtedly a very smart example of the breed, lovely head with such a good foreface (so many are short and weak), the darkest of so alive eyes and he is really well ribbed and conditioned. Circled the ring with reach and drive and complimented the challenge. 2 Tingey's Dallydor Aramis nicely headed dog with a charming expression. He is well spotted, ample substance, well boned legs and very good tight feet and level backline. I'd like a little more width in upper thigh to complete the picture. But he moves out quite soundly. 3 Stock's Nospar's Shaded Lanson JW.

OD (5) 1st CC BOB G1 & BIS Neath-Duggan & Baker's Ch Buffrey Incognito by Calleaf JW I don't recall ever seeing this very handsome dog before and he just came. saw and conquered. I loved him, his sheer class and style. Attitude to burn, excellent construction, delightful head and expression, all male but oozing quality and elegance. Moves around the ring with real drive and purpose. Delighted to learn he won the Group and then went on to BIS whilst I was stuck in Birmingham airport with a 3 hour delay!! 2nd & Res CC Page's Winflash Hugo Boss another lovely example of the breed and I believe sitting on 2 CCs awaiting that vital 3rd. In this form it should not take long to arrive, unless he keeps meeting the winner or others of his outstanding quality. I thought he excelled in most areas and only bowed the knee to the winner on his smoother rear extension on the move. But certainly will make a worthy titleholder. 3 Green & Sear's Ch Tolutim Yves St Laurent at Judally.

MPB (4/1) 1 Carroll's Willowvine All Eyes On Me such a feminine black package. I would like a little more length and strength in foreface, good reach of neck, well ribbed, smooth back and croup line to a good tail. Sufficient bend of stifle and in beautiful bloom. Just needs a little more ring training to be more settled when moving. 2 Ford's Kayjuke Kamaria nicely constructed with an appeal on the stack as she has a nice head, eyes and expression. Clean throated, adequate shoulder angulation and firm in body. Another which needs ring training as she let herself down on the move where she played up. 3 Farrell's Kayjuke Kalindi.

PB (2) 1 Jackson & Watts' Tamilanda Continental Song well decorated and has appeal on the stack. Pleasing head and expression, ample neck adds to the appeal of her outline. Balanced profile action but she is wide when fore viewed and her backline could be tighter. In excellent coat and condition. 2 W. All Eyes On Me. JB (5/1) Headed by 2 very promising liver bitches. The winner is so elegant on the stack, her outline just flows, she uses her good neck to advantage, her front are rear angles are harmonious, the ribs amply deep and she has such a charming eye and expression. On the move she keeps her shape and shows plenty of ground cover. The second was equally appealing at first glance and handling proved that she too should have a bright future. She matched the winner on the stack, is handled to get the last ounce out of her and I only edged the winner ahead in being that fraction tighter in front action when coming towards me. I'm sure they will swap places often. 1st Wright's Millbelle Fernie. 2 Page's Winflash Miss Dior. 3 Richard's Divazzi Desire For Romance.

NB (2,1) W. All Eyes On Me.

PGB (9) 1 Gardner's Dvojica Chilli Chutney for Wrendagge JW this is a very stylish and ever so shapely liver and surely is title bound. Has an air of good breeding and is truly a class item. Utterly of her sex, so balanced in shape, beautifully headed with the wisest of dark eyes giving that knowing expression. Moves out with a light, free and sound step. Her presence enhanced the bitch challenge. 2 Quayle's Chizzmic Carry On With Culalibre another really smart example of the breed, this time a black. Again she is so well constructed, lovely fore assembly, tight elbows, the tightest of feet and straight forelegs. She is very well ribbed, supple loin and well muscled hindquarters. Quite sound, sparkling coat condition and was just edged out by the winner being that tad better in hock action moving away from me. 3 Thomas' Buffrey Magic Moments with Philcarthom JW.

LB (7) 1 Neath-Duggan & Baker's Buffrey Hanky Panky by Dalleaf JW whatever diet sheet this exhibitor uses for her charges must be something special! This delightful black bitch also came into the ring (as did her BOB winning kennelmate) and dominated it with sheer attitude and presence. She should easily go on to her crown as she is such a smart example of the Dally. Delightful headpiece, well bodied, good decoration, and shows non stop using that good neck to full advantage. On the move she is fleet footed and psitive. 2 Whincup's Tamilanda Pick-a-Lily. 3 Stevenson's Macula Moonlight Mystique JW.

OB (7/1) Another photo finish decision! 1 & CC Page's Winflash Prada Candy Kiss an utterly charming black which was winning her 2 CC. Loved her size, length/height proportions, smooth flowing clean outline, ample neck, so well conditioned and muscled and she moved around the ring with such conviction and drive. Her head and expression are a delight and her handler got every last ounce out of her. 2nd & res CC Gardner's Ch Dvojica Black Again at Wrendagge JW ShCM I believe I was meeting this very worthy Ch for the 3rd time! She is such a worthy Ch and only lost out to the winner on Candy moving with a bit more oomph and conviction. This bitch is a joy to go over, has real quality and is a credit to both her breeder and her owners. And how lucky are they to own not just her but the very beautiful PGB as well! 3 Chrisite's Ch Sophtspot Glitterati JW
